A culmination of international experts and exhibitors

The fifth edition of analytica Anacon India, the international trade fair and conference covering sectors like analytical instrumentation, biotechnology, laboratory technology and services will feature a portfolio of exhibitors from India and abroad. The event will be held at Hitex Exhibition Center, Hyderabad, on September 29-October 1, 2009. analytica Anacon India is part of the international exhibition network including exhibitions like analytica Munich, analytica China and analytica Vietnam.

Other than international trade fair, the accompanying conference featuring lectures by leading experts in the sector will provide a chance for knowledge transfer and networking. The conference session will cover a broad range of topics from the fields of chromatography, biotechnology and life sciences. The scientific lectures session is organized by the Indian Analytical Instruments Association (IAIA) and Prof. Dr A Kettrup (Department of ecological chemistry and environment, Technical University of Munich). Each year the conference attracts an increasing number of international speakers and achieves greater significance in the analytical industry. Eminent speakers from all across the world will present their papers on topics like analytical instrumentations, life science/biotechnology, pharmaceuticals, food safety and environmental analysis at the analytica Anacon India conference.

“As in the past, the fifth edition of analytica Anacon India will give companies an international platform where they can present the latest developments including innovations in sectors like biotechnology, analysis, chemicals, pharmaceuticals and food industry. India is gaining prominence as a favorable investment and sales destination and more and more companies are showing their interest in positioning themselves on the subcontinent,” said Klaus Dittrich, managing director of Messe München GmbH, Germany.

Presentations by poster award winners are also part of the events scheduled for analytical Anacon India.
