

HealthCare atHOME receives GPW Certification

04 January 2019 | News

Any company is as great at its employee and HCAH has successfully made sure that their employees are upgraded with the latest technology and researches in the field of healthcare

HealthCare atHOME (HCAH) has announced that it has been certified as a great workplace by the independent analysts at Great Place to Work®.

HCAH earned this credential based on extensive ratings provided by its employees in anonymous surveys.

HCAH is operational since 2012 and has grown from a 2-employee company to a company with more than 1500 resources. Maintaining the standards of employee satisfaction with such rapidly rising growth graph is not easy.

Healthcare is a challenging job and the employees are always under the pressure to perform their best because one lapse can be a question of life or death for their clients. In such extreme working conditions, it is very important that employees are treated nicely and given due benefits. Happiness is contagious; a happy employee is a happy customer. People centric approach of the company has made it possible for HCAH to have a huge pool of happy customers and employees.

Any company is as great at its employee and HCAH has successfully made sure that their employees are upgraded with the latest technology and researches in the field of healthcare. Capacity building training, operational transparency and opportunities for talent have helped HCAH in securing a Trust Index Score of 82% in a survey conducted by GTPW®, which gauges credibility, respect, reasonableness, pride, and kinship.

Vivek Srivastava, CEO & Co-founder HCAH says, "We are humbled to be recognized as one of the best places to work for in India. At HCAH, we practice an open-door policy where every employee has the freedom to express their views for the betterment of our operations. Work culture at HCAH revolves around four key values of trust, empathy, excellence, and care. Earlier the recognition was our happy patients and now receiving this certification confirms that the culture we have established is the right one, and we look forward to continuing and refining it further. The recognition was not possible without the support and dedication of HCAH family and I thank every single employee for playing their part in making HCAH a great place to work."

"I hope, HCAH will maintain its rising growth graph and HCAH family members will keep raising the standard and quality bar in the years to come", he added.

Great Place to Work® Certification Program is the first step for an organization in its journey to build a High-Trust, High-Performance Culture™ and HCAH has successfully achieved this milestone.
