

Scientific convention on World Homoeopathy Day

10 April 2019 | News

Memoranda of Understanding (MOUs) were also exchanged with the Directorate of AYUSH Chandigarh administration on undertaking research on epidemic diseases

A two-day Convention on World Homeopathy Day was recently conducted in New Delhi. The convention was inaugurated by Secretary, Ministry of AYUSH Dr. Vaidya Rajesh Kotecha. The World Homoeopathy Day is observed to commemorate the birth anniversary of the founder of Homoeopathy, Dr. Christian Fredrich Samuel Hahnemann.

Dr. Kotecha in his inaugural address emphasised the Ministry's efforts to bridge the gap between science and tradition through researches in the field of AYUSH. He further said that the Ministry is equally dedicated to validate Homoeopathy through focused research, enhance its manufacturing and production standards, as well as assure the best quality education in the homoeopathy colleges.

On this occasion Joint Secretary, Ministry of AYUSH, Roshan Jaggi said that a link between the academic and research environments is an essential dimension to identify and evolve mechanisms of synergy between scientists and educators.

Memoranda of Understanding (MOUs) were also exchanged with the Directorate of AYUSH Chandigarh administration on undertaking research on epidemic diseases like Dengue, Influenza like illness, Chikungunya, Tuberculosis and other infectious diseases and with JSPS Government Homeopathic Medical College, Ramanthapur, Hyderabad for undertaking clinical research.