

Cabinet approves MoC between India, Kyrgyzstan to strengthen healthcare

13 June 2019 | News | By Manbeena Chawla

The Memorandum of Cooperation intends to strengthen healthcare systems

The Union Cabinet, chaired by the Prime Minister Narendra Modi, has approved a Memorandum of Collaboration (MoC) between India and Kyrgyzstan for collaborative research work on High Altitude Biology and Medicine and aiming at further development and strengthening of mutual relationships in science and medicine, especially in high altitude biology and medicine.

The MoC will help in understanding the physical and mental picture of soldier system at high altitude and mitigate the high altitude related maladies by using Yoga practice, herbals and nutraceuticals in Indian and Kyrgyz soldiers/population.

The Cabinet has also approved the proposal of the Ministry of Health & Family Welfare for signing a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) between the Ministry of Health & Family Welfare of the Republic of India and the Ministry of Health of the Kyrgyz Republic in the field of Health.

The Memorandum of Cooperation covers the following areas of cooperation:-

- Strengthening of healthcare systems;
- Non-communicable diseases, communicable diseases and anti-microbial resistance;
- Development of hospital management systems and health information systems Hospital Management;
- Maternal and child health;
- Medical Researches;
- Exchange of experience in transplantation of kidney and liver, cardiac surgery, oncology, orthopedics, traumatology, etc.;
- Improving capacity of human resources in the field of health;
- Exchange of information and experience in the field of regulation of pharmaceuticals & medical devices circulation;
- Exchange of experience and information on good practice of clinical trials of medicines and medical products;
- Integrated surveillance of diseases;
- Arranging visits for the experience exchange among physicians, nurses and IT-specialists;

- Exchange of experience on e-health;
- Providing opportunities for health specialists to receive training and professional development at the "India-Kyrgyz Center for Information Technologies" with further internships in the Republic of India;
- Health Tourism; and
- Any other area of cooperation as may be mutually decided upon.