"We are extending aid for local initiatives"- Sharad Tyagi

14 April 2020 | Views

Sharad Tyagi, Managing Director, Boehringer Ingelheim India shares his views on the ongoing COVID-19 situation

"During this unprecedented crisis, Boehringer Ingelheim India joins hand for helping in the common cause, by extending aid for local initiatives. We have presently made a contribution of ~EUR 150,000 supporting various local initiatives.This includes aid via Americares India Foundation to support Brihanmumbai Municipal Corporation (BMC) for setting up COVID-19 quarantine centers and donation of 1,000 PPE's, procuring N95 masks from China for distribution to hospitals and providing 5,000 3 ply masks for HCP's to BMC. We have also made a significant contribution to the PM Cares Fund. We are committed to supporting the government in their efforts to contain the pandemic."
