

Clinimed highlights COVID-19 impact on clinical research industry

03 June 2020 | News

Organizing a Webinar on “Strategies to Conduct Clinical Trials effectively in Covid-19 era”

Clinimed LifeSciences Pvt. Ltd., Kolkata is gladly organizing a Webinar on “Strategies to Conduct Clinical Trials effectively in Covid-19 era” in association with Indian Society for Clinical Research (ISCR) and Peerless Hospital, Kolkata as knowledge partners, on 6 June 2020.

The objective of this insightful webinar is to promote discussion among all stakeholders of clinical trials in the country on the effect Covid19 Pandemic will have on future clinical trials and clinical research industry.

Our Distinguished Panelists are:

Dr. V. G. Somani, Drug Controller General of India (DCGI)

Mr. Anirban Roy Chowdhury, Codirector- Clinical Portfolio Management (CDSA, THSTI, DBT), Govt. of India & Executive Council Member, ISCR

Ms. Suneela Thatte, Vice President & Head, R&D, IQVIA India, Executive Committee Member of ISCR.

Dr. Roli Mathur, Head of ICMR Bioethics Unit

Dr. Alben Sigamani, Group Head, Dept. of Clinical Research, Narayana Health

Dr. Sanish Davis, R&D Director, Johnson & Johnson India; General Secretary, Indian Society for Clinical Research (ISCR)

Dr. Soma Mukhopadhyaya, Director of CliniMed LifeSciences; CEO of Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose Cancer Hospital, Kolkata

Our Moderator is:

Dr. Subhrojyoti Bhowmick, MD

Clinical Director, Research &Academics,
Peerless Hospital, Kolkata
NABH assessor for hospitals and ethics committee accreditation.

Takeaways from this Webinar:

In this webinar, attendees will learn about:

- Understanding the impact of today's environment on clinical trials (data, sites, milestones) and their patients
- What regulatory changes were brought into effect during the pandemic that will change the future of clinical research
- How innovations in technology were used to support clinical research during the pandemic in order to keep trials on track and make future trials more efficient
- Role of SMOs/ CROs/ Sponsors/ ISCR/ Institution in managing clinical trials in COVID-19 Pandemic

CliniMed LifeSciences Pvt. Ltd., a start-up contract research organization (CRO) based on Kolkata, West Bengal, providing clinical research services at a global level and ensures that a trial moves faster through the value chain and results in shorter timeliness to get to the market.