

Sreedhareeyam Ayurvedic Eye Care Hospital enters Hyderabad

08 March 2021 | News

The chain plans to open over 100 eye care centres across India, adding the other 61 eye care centres by March 2022.

World's largest Ayurvedic eye care chain, Sreedhareeyam - the renowned Ayurvedic Group based out of Koothattukulam in Ernakulam District of Kerala, has announced its foray into Hyderabad and started a new branch of the Sreedhareeyam Ayurvedic Eye Care Hospital and Panchakarma Centre, at Chirag Ali Lane, Hyderabad.

The Hyderabad branch of Sreedhareeyam is the 39th branch in India. It has branches in eleven cities in Kerala, besides presence in 12 other major cities pan India including Delhi, Mumbai, Chennai and Bengaluru.

Speaking on the occasion NP Sreejith Namboothiri, Executive Director, Sreedhareeyam said, "We have plans to open over 100 eye care centres across India, we will be adding the other 61 eye care centres by March 2022. Our next branch will be launched in the national capital, New Delhi."

Sreedhareeyam Ayurvedic Eye Care Hospital and Panchakarma Centre, provides treatment through Ayurveda for major eye ailments and complications related to Diabetic Retinopathy, Retinitis Pigmentosa, Macular Degeneration, Glaucoma, Detachment of Retina and Hyperaemia Retinae. The Panchakarma and other traditional treatments it offers include Pizhichil, Dhara, Njavarakizhi, Elakizhi, Nasyam, Swedam, Dhara and Tharpanam.

With the commencement of our Hyderabad branch, another long-cherished dream has come true for us. We firmly believe that a hospital in Hyderabad will be of immense help to the people in this region, and with our knowledgeable team of Dr Sebin, Dr Johny and Dr Gireesh Dev, it's a step closer to fulfilling our corporate vision of 'Vision for All', adds Namboothiri.