CitiusTech appoints Bhaskar Sambasivan as President

08 June 2021 | News

Sambasivan has over 30 years of experience in healthcare, life sciences and digital transformation

Healthcare technology services provider CitiusTech has appointed Bhaskar Sambasivan as President. Sambasivan will focus on strengthening CitiusTech's client relationships, building deeper healthcare capabilities and solutions, developing strategic offerings and driving business growth.

Sambasivan comes with over 30 years of experience in healthcare, life sciences and digital technology services. He was, most recently, President of Patient Services and Chief Strategy Officer of EVERSANA, a leading life sciences platform company. Prior to EVERSANA, he spent close to 15 years at Cognizant and was the Global Head of Life Sciences. Under his leadership, Cognizant's Life Sciences business grew over thirty-fold in 15 years. Before Cognizant, he spent many years with Siebel/Oracle and PricewaterhouseCoopers. Bhaskar was recognized as a PharmaVOICE Top 100 leader in both 2017 and 2018 for his industry contributions.

"Sambasivan is a growth-focused leader with proven success in scaling healthcare technology businesses. His vast experience and his focus on operational excellence will be critical for us, as we embark on our next phase of growth," said William Winkenwerder, Chairman, CitiusTech.

"I cannot be more excited to be part of this great company that is exclusively focused on healthcare, to help lead the next phase of growth and make a significant difference to our healthcare clients and patients we serve," said Sambasivan.
