Rejove Clinique raises $1 M from Singapore-based VC

03 November 2021 | News

Opens skin, hair and dental aesthetic clinique

Rejove Clinique has raised $1 million, first-round of funding from a Singapore-based VC. Rejové also unveiled its state-of-the-art skin, hair and dental aesthetic clinique equipped with the latest global technologies and solutions.

According to Dr Priyanka Goyat, Orthodontist and Dentofacial Orthopaedic Surgeon/Cosmetologist & Founder, Rejové Clinique, “The strategic investment will help us realise our vision, and we look forward to taking Clinique to the next phase of its journey. We plan to use the funds to expand our product and service portfolio, diversify our state-of-the-art technology backed infrastructure, amplify our reach to the potential customers and market places."

The New Delhi-based startup has also recently launched ‘Rejové Aligners’, next-generation clear aligners for making professional and advanced orthodontic treatment accessible to people across age groups.
