Funds to be utilised to scale-up existing operations and launch new products

Integrative oncology health tech platform ZenOnco.io, based in Bengaluru, has raised $1.4 million in seed funding.

The round was led by Enzia Ventures, with participation from Better Capital, Apollo Hospitals, Titan Capital, Dr Arvind Kumar and several long-term associated angel investors.

In this round, Founders have also subscribed to additional equity of Rs 1 crore. Funds shall be invested to scale-up ZenOnco.io's existing operations and launch new products to make integrative oncology accessible and affordable for all.

Dimple Parmar and Kishan Shah, Founders, ZenOnco.io and Love Heals Cancer, say, "We are happy to find like-minded investors who want to make a long-term impact in the field of cancer care. This investment allows us to reach out to more people, launch new products, and make personalized cancer care more accessible and affordable."
