Phablecare acquires Fused Training for strengthening Type-1 diabetes vertical

31 March 2022 | News

Phablecare closed this acquisition for an undisclosed sum

Bengaluru-based Phablecare has announced the acquisition of Noida-based Fused Training, India's first holistic Type-1 diabetes health management startup. In its approach to tackling Type-1 Diabetes, the startup has combined theoretical science and practical experience, which is then tailored to the user's individual needs and lifestyle.

Through this acquisition, Phablecare will look at strengthening its Type-1 diabetes vertical. Phablecare closed this acquisition for an undisclosed sum, betting on the startup's holistic approach to Type 1 Diabetes management

Phablecare users can now access the tried and tested type-1 diabetes programmes of Fused Training as a result of this new partnership.
