Practo elevates Siddhartha Nihalani as Co-founder

02 May 2022 | News

Nihalani will focus on building products for Practoâ??s digital-first surgery business Practo has announced the elevation of its long-term executive and growth head, Siddhartha Nihalani to the position of Co-founder. Siddhartha has been associated with Practo since its inception and has been a driving force behind the technology, growth and business strategy. With this elevation, Nihalani will accompany Shashank ND and Abhinav Lal, the other co-founders.

Nihalani will focus on building products for Practo’s digital-first surgery business. He is going to play an active role in new product development that will further Practo’s mission of providing quality and affordable healthcare to over a billion+ Indians. Along with this, he would also work with Practo’s core leadership on business strategy and expansion.
