05 September 2025 | News

Dogra has held senior leadership roles across reputed institutions

ShardaCare Healthcity and Sharda Hospital has appointed Sandeep Dogra as Group Chief Operating Officer (COO), effective immediately. Dogra brings over 25 years of expertise in healthcare administration.

At ShardaCare Healthcity and Sharda Hospital, he will lead strategic growth, P&L management, and the diversification of services through new specialties and outpatient clinics. He will also focus on expanding digital and telehealth platforms, driving operational excellence through optimised pricing, cross-functional collaboration, AI-driven insights, and patient-centric initiatives, while strengthening teams and further enhancing the group's integrated healthcare ecosystem.

Sharing his vision, Sandeep Dogra, Group Chief Operating Officer, ShardaCare Healthcity and Sharda Hospital said, "It is a privilege to take on the role of COO at the hospitals at this important stage in its journey. With its strong foundation, advanced facilities, and commitment to excellence, the institution is uniquely placed to redefine standards of patient care. I look forward to contributing my experience to drive strategic expansion, enhance operational efficiencies, and strengthen our mission of making world-class healthcare accessible and sustainable."

Dogra has held senior leadership roles across reputed institutions including Max Healthcare, IVY Healthcare Group, The Nairobi West Hospital (Kenya), CARE Hospitals, Fortis Healthcare, Apollo Hospitals, Hinduja Hospital, and Wockhardt Hospitals. He is an alumnus of ISB (PGPMAX), Welingkar Institute of Management, and Bharti Vidyapath, and has been recognized with several industry honors including the CEO Award by Max Healthcare, Healthcare Excellence Award by The Times Group, Achievers of the North by The Tribune, and The Pioneer Award from The Times of India.
