

Kolkata to host BIRAC 's workshop on bioentrepreneurship

24 June 2015 | News | By BioSpectrum Bureau

Kolkata to host BIRAC 's workshop on bioentrepreneurship

With an aim to sensitize the biotechnology industries, startups, entrepreneurs, academia and researchers about the government funding support to the innovation ecosystem; pointers towards writing an effective grant proposal for industry innovation research; effective use and management of intellectual property tools.

The event is expected to have the participation of biotech industry, budding entrepreneurs, researchers, students. Scheduled to be held at Kolkata on June 27 and 28, the workshops will focus on BIRAC funding programs, effective grant writing skills, experience sharing by BIRAC supported innovator, tech-preneurship in life sciences sector on the first day. Besides that, the other areas such as securing and exploiting intellectual property rights in bioscience sector, patenting subject matters and biotech innovations are the focus areas on second day.

The venue of the workshop is Centre for Research in Nanoscience and Nanotechnology (CRNN), University of Calcutta.