

permission to undertake activities like sourcing, trading, supply, distribution, marketing etc. of Bio-diesel to consumers.

As the price of diesel is already deregulated and determined by the market, there is no economic justification in preventing private biodiesel manufacturers, their authorised dealers and JVs of OMCs authorized by the MoP&NG from selling biodiesel directly to consumers subject to their product meeting prescribed BIS standards.