

Kurien to head Wipro HealthScience

12 February 2003 | News

image not found or type unknown

With the stepping down of DA Prasanna, as the chief executive officer, Wipro HealthScience, Wipro Ltd announced the appointment of TK Kurien as president of Wipro HealthScience to address the market opportunities in Healthcare and Life Science IT. Kurien, who is currently chief executive, Telecom and Internet Service Provider (TISP) vertical in Wipro Technologies, has worked with Wipro GE Medical Systems Ltd in various capacities for over 10 years. Kurien will be reporting to Vivek Paul, vice chairman, Wipro Technologies.