BioSpect
the business of Bi 24 years of leveraging the business of Bio www.biospectrumindia.co

DBT invites North East scientists for overseas fellowships

15 January 2015 | News | By BioSpectrum Bureau

DBT invites North East scientists for overseas fellowships

The applications have been invited from the scientists working in any North Eastern states including Arunachal Pradesh, Manipur, Assam, Meghalaya, Mizoram and Nagaland for the Biotech Overeas Associateship 2015-16 under the special programme for conducting training in various laboratories.

The areas for developing the skills include marine biotechnology, agri-biotecnology, stem cells, nano-biotech, bioenergy, biomaterials, bioelectronics, biodesign, environmental biology among host of other verticals within biotechnology area.Â

The criteria for the scientists with minimum three years of experience to apply for such fellowhips is that they should be working for two years in the North Eastern institues or universities. The last date for the submission has been kept as February 28, 2015.Â