Felix Hospital wins global award

29 May 2017 | News

Indian ambassador to UAE Navdeep Singh Suri and ambassadors, diplomats from Norway, Bulgaria, local chairman of ICAI and other prominent world leaders graced the occasion.

Adding yet another feather in its cap, Noida-based multi-specialty hospital Felix has received the prestigious "World Greatest Brands and Leaders of Asia & GCC countries (2016-17)" award in a recent event organised by India–UAE Business and Social Forum in Dubai.

In addition, Dr DK Gupta, Chairman Felix Hospital, was recognised as a "Brand Leader" at the event that was attended by 300 prominent business leaders and diplomats from India, Dubai and other countries.

Global consultancy firm Price water-house Coopers (PwC), URS Media Asia 1 Magazine and United reason Services selected only four Indian hospitals out of 1,500 hospitals that were reviewed from India and GCC region (India, Dubai, Singapore, Malaysia, Oman, Qatar, Sri Lanka, Kuwait and Bahrain).

Indian ambassador to UAE Navdeep Singh Suri and ambassadors, diplomats from Norway, Bulgaria, local chairman of ICAI and other prominent world leaders graced the occasion.

Established in 2015, Felix Hospital earned accreditation from National Accreditation Board for Hospitals and Healthcare providers (NABH) for quality and safety of patient care within a year of its setting up–setting a record to have received NABH accredition in the shortest time period in the Indian hyealthcare industry.

Felix is a multi and super specialty hospital with excellence in cardiology, neurosciences, mother and child care, orthopedics, plastic surgery and others. The hospital is on the panel of CGHS, ECHS, ESI, DGHS, PSUs, GIPSA, all major TPAs, health insurance companies, Noida and Greater Noida authorities.